

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maumita Patwary completes PMWL Research Internship

Graduate student at SDA Bocconi Asia Center in Mumbai completes PM World Library research internship

11 June 2024 – Mumbai, India and Dallas, TX, USA – PM World has announced that Ms. Maumita Patwary in India has successfully completed a PM World Library project management research internship. Maumita is currently pursuing her International Master's in Business degree at SDA Bocconi Asia Center, Mumbai, India for the academic year 2023-2025. She is studying project management in a program directed by Prof Marco Sampietro of SDA Bocconi University, Milan, Italy.

Ms Patwary holds a Bachelor's degree in Information Technology from Netaji Subhash Engineering College (Kolkata, India), where she studied from 2015-2019. From 2019 to 2021, Maumita worked as an Assistant Systems Engineer for Tata Consultancy Services, Bangalore. She was involved in multiple projects related to API development, maintenance in Java and SpringBoot. She also worked as a Software Engineer in Larson & Toubro Infotech, Bangalore where she was a part of requirement gathering, analysis, development and delivery of client specifications.

She already holds Certified Scrum Master (CSM) and Lean Six Sigma Green Belt certifications. Her major fields of study are general management and information technology (IT). Research interests: Agile Project Management, project management of public projects in India, people management, Innovation and Project Management, quality management. PM World Internship Focus: Business Improvement and Project management, Product Management, Strategic Planning and Management.

According to PM World Library Director David Pells, “Maumita was an excellent intern, submitting good research results on a weekly basis for more than 16 weeks. She started in late January and conducted research and identified resources for the PM World Library that should prove useful to many of our members and readers. I am grateful for her work.”

According to Maumita, “Thank you for this opportunity. Your support and guidance have been invaluable throughout this process. I appreciate the Certificate of Completion and Appreciation, as well as the Letter of Recommendation. I am glad to have access to the PM World Library and look forward to utilizing its resources in the future. Wishing you and the entire PM World team all the best.”

Pells added, “I also want to thank Professor Sampietro for referring Maumita to us for the internship, and for his support over the last five years. Since the PM World Library also provides a resource for students of project management, his support and his referral of students for the internship directly contribute to that mission.”

Maumita completed her PMWL research internship on 4 June 2024. To see Maumita's research results, visit her intern showcase page at <https://pmworldlibrary.net/maumita-patwary/>

PM World offers virtual project management research internships to university students worldwide who are studying at recognized universities. Internships offer students an opportunity to research specific program/project management topics, acquire new knowledge, gain visibility and enhance their CVs. Interns also receive a certificate, letter of reference and five years of free PMWL membership. To learn more, go to <http://pmworldlibrary.net/university-interns/>

The PM World Library (PMWL) is a global resource for continuous learning in programme and project management. The PMWL is administered by PM World, which also produces the monthly PM World Journal (PMWJ), a global resource for sharing knowledge related to portfolio, program and project management (P/PM). To see the latest edition of the PMWJ, go to <https://pmworldjournal.com/>. To learn more, visit <https://pmworldlibrary.net/>.