Early Registration ends soon for 1st UT Dallas Virtual PM Conference

PMI leaders in Europe, North America and South America to speak during 18 October 1-day event

10 July 2024 – Richardson, TX, USA – Early registration for the 1st University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas) Project Management Conference will be ending soon. The 1st UT Dallas PM Conference will be held virtually on 18 October 2024. Project management professionals and practitioners worldwide are invited to join in. Visit the conference web page here.

The 1-day conference is being organized by the Executive Education Graduate Program in Project Management at Jindal School of Management at UT Dallas, in cooperation with the PMI Dallas Chapter and the PM World Journal (PMWJ).

Following the successful 16th UT Dallas Project Management Symposium in May, the October event will feature renowned speakers from around the world, experts that are unavailable to those attending the live event earlier this year. The lineup for the October virtual conference will include the following PMI executives and luminaries:

- Lenka Pincot, Chief of Staff to PMI CEO Pierre Le Manh (Paris, France) and Edivandro Conforto, PhD, PMI Thought leadership Director (Brazil) – speaking on “PMI: Next Thought Leadership”
- Antonio Neito-Rodriguez, Author of HBR Handbook of Project Management, Fellow and Former Board Chair of PMI (Madrid, Spain) – speaking on “What is Hybrid PM? And Why AI will Accelerate its Adoption”
- Yasmina Khelifi, French Telecom Project Manager, Internationally-recognized author, blogger, podcaster, PMWJ correspondent (Paris, France) – speaking on “Making a Modern Project Manager; A Personal Journey”
- Dr. Al Zeitoun, PMI Fellow, Author of multiple project management books, Future of Work Executive, Director, Siemens; Member of PMI Global Industry Council (Maryland) – speaking on “Program Management – Going beyond Project Management to enable Value Driven Change”
- Karla Eidem, Regional Managing Director, North America, PMI; Immediate past North America Regional Operations Manager, PMI (South Dakota) – speaking on “Empowering Your Career with PM Superpowers”

- Lee Lambert, PMP, PMI Fellow, International-known and popular keynote speaker (Ohio) – speaking on “A/I: Artificial Intelligence or Actionable Information; What’s the Difference?”

According to UT Dallas program director Jeanette Henriques, “We’re excited to launch our first virtual project management conference. Our recently completed 16th annual 2-day in-person PM symposium was so successful, we are hoping to duplicate that in October. By engaging well-known PM speakers from distant locations, we also want to provide new knowledge and perspectives for our local audience. It should be interactive, fun and educational!”

Wherever you are in the world, don’t miss this opportunity to learn, listen to and interact with globally respected project management experts and leaders. Early bird pricing of $125 will continue through 31 August 2024. Discounted individual and group prices are offered.

Since 1997 the Project Management Program at The UT Dallas has provided application-oriented education for professionals with significant project, program or general management responsibilities. Established in the Executive Education Center in UT Dallas’ Naveen Jindal School of Management, students can earn a Graduate Certificate in Project Management, a Master of Science degree with an emphasis in project management, or a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree with project management emphasis.
