This edition also includes a near-record 11 featured papers, including major new works by frequent contributors Bob Prieto, Alan Stretton, Pascal Mabelo, Walt Lipke and Prof M.F. Harake. The six papers by academic researchers in Nigeria are also a record, attesting to the PMWJ’s popularity and usefulness in one of Africa’s largest and fastest growing economies.”

New authors this month include: Victor Agbara (Nigeria), Claudia Alcelay (Spain), RonAmber Deloney (USA), Hrishikesh Deshpande (Germany/India), Marva Gordon (USA/Jamaica), Shannon Keenan (USA), Anna Ladipo (USA), Kimia Penton (USA), Ugochukwu Udezor (Nigeria), and Emmanuel Efe Uwaifo (Nigeria). New works by 37 authors already included in the library were also added.

“Our regular and returning authors really keep the PMWJ full of interesting and important new works each month,” Pells adds. “I am extremely grateful to our correspondents, series authors and returning contributors for sharing their extensive professional experiences and knowledge with our readers around the world. This month we also include three excellent papers from the 16th UT Dallas PM Symposium in May for which we were a co-organizer. There’s a lot in this edition, hopefully something for every reader.”
