Ameena Haq completes PMWL Research Internship

Graduate student at Riphah International University in Pakistan completes PM World Library research internship

25 October 2024 – Dallas, TX, USA and Rawalpindi, Pakistan – PM World has announced that Ms. Ameena Haq in Pakistan has successfully completed a PM World Library project management research internship. Ameena recently completed her MSc degree in Project Management at Riphah International University in Rawalpindi, Pakistan for the academic years 2022-2024.

Ms. Haq was awarded a BSc in Biomedical Engineering from the same university in the year 2020. She is a motivated project management student seeking an opportunity to apply theoretical knowledge, drive successful outcomes, and grow professionally. She is proficient in project planning, team coordination, and problem-solving and is eager to contribute strong communication and organizational skills to achieve project success.

Coming from a medical background, she has a strong interest in the field of healthcare study and projects, as well as her course projects, assignments, and thesis which revolve around the same.

According to PM World Library Director David Pells, “Ameena submitting 16 excellent research results on a regular basis over the last eight months. She provided resources related to innovation, resilience, sustainability and several other hot topics in PM, which can now be found in the library. I am grateful for her hard work.”

According to Ameena, “Thank you so much for granting me this amazing opportunity. It was a pleasure working with you and this internship has indeed been a learning experience for me, also adding academic points at the same time. I wish you all the best in advancing this library and making it a fruitful learning site for students and researchers alike.

Ameena completed her PMWL research internship on 14 October 2024. To see Ameena’s research results, visit her intern showcase webpage at <https://pmworldlibrary.net/ameena-haq/>
