

IPMA announces 34th World Congress in Berlin: 17-19 September 2025

The project management community to gather in the German capital

From 17 to 19 September 2025, the international project management community will gather in Berlin for the IPMA World Congress, the most significant global event for project management professionals. Under the theme "Shaping the Future with Project Management," the congress will feature keynotes, expert presentations, practical case studies, and academic contributions, highlighting the pivotal role of projects and project management in tackling global challenges. This year's event also celebrates the 60th anniversary of the International Project Management Association (IPMA).

The congress provides the perfect platform to explore the latest trends, innovations, and best practices in project management. Professionals from diverse industries and countries will come together to exchange ideas on the future of project management. Networking is a key focus, with numerous opportunities to forge valuable connections and engage on an international level.

Early-Bird Tickets and Membership Discounts

Early-bird tickets are now available for purchase, with a discount of approximately 10% until 25 June 2025 (subject to availability). Members of GPM or IPMA are eligible for an additional 15% discount on congress tickets.
