
BREAKING NEWS

College of Performance Management announces new President

13 January 2025 – Virginia, USA – The College of Performance Management (CPM) is proud to announce that Rebecca (Becky) Winston has been elected President and Darrell Mesa has been re-elected to Vice President of Digital Presence. Both will serve a three-year term.

According to Becky (pictured), “CPM’s mission is to share, promote, and advance the best of planning, control and performance management for projects of all sizes and complexity. The strategic focus for CPM is to advocate, educate and communicate for its members. I look forward to advancing CPM with its deep history of earned value and other performance management approaches in both government and industry. Proven best practices for managing large complex programs are well established in our field; we need to remind the world.”

There are numerous volunteer opportunities with CPM and Becky and her fellow Board members who look forward to working with volunteers to meet the needs of the profession and professionals working in performance management and integrated project management. To find out about CPM and its opportunities, go to www.mycpm.org.

About CPM

The College of Performance Management (CPM) is a global, non-profit, professional organization dedicated to developing and disseminating the principles and practices of earned value management and other project performance management techniques. CPM assists project controls professional and project managers in professional growth and promotes the application of earned value management. CPM is a growing body of professionals dedicated to managing projects on time and on budget. www.mycpm.org

Editor’s note: Rebecca Winston, Esq, PMI Fellow is an honorary global advisor for the PM World Journal and Library, and a frequent contributing author for the PMWJ. See some of her work at <https://pmworldlibrary.net/authors/rebecca-becky-winston/>