

BREAKING NEWS

Registration open for 17th UT Dallas Project Management Symposium in May

Group discounts available to attend the premier project management conference in north Texas scheduled for 30 May 2024

7 April 2024 – Richardson, TX, USA – Registration for the 17th annual University of Texas at Dallas (UT Dallas) Project Management Symposium is open. This year's UT Dallas PM Symposium will be held live on Friday, 30 May 2025 at the Naveen Jindal School of Management on the UT Dallas campus in Richardson, Texas, USA (just north of Dallas). Visit the symposium website here.

This year's symposium is organized by the Executive Education Graduate Program in Project Management at UT Dallas, in cooperation with the PM World Journal. This live Project Management Symposium will pack a full conference worth of presentations and learning opportunities in a one-day event. Join other PM professionals, network, share experiences and continue your project management journey at this live event. More information on the conference website.

Since 2007, this has been one of the premier PM conferences in the region and one of the most highly rated in the central United States. This year's event will include three keynote presentations and multiple tracks of professional presentations on new, important and trending topics related to program, portfolio and project management.

Keynote Speakers will include:

Pamela Dukes, Director, Agile Coach, Scrum Master and a Hall of Fame and Olympic athlete who is focused on helping teams through servant leadership and self-reliance strategies. If your team needs a boost, don't miss this exciting talk.

Mohamed Charkas, Executive Vice President of Infrastructure & Development for Dallas Fort Worth International Airport. He will share lessons learned over a career full of critical infrastructure projects and other challenges.

Suzette Plaisance Bryan, Ph.D., SPHR, GPHR, SHRM-SCP, Consultant and instructor in Executive Education at UT Dallas who has an extensive background in human resources, leadership development, and corporate training and development. She will share useful knowledge for anyone in the project management field.

Track speakers will be announced on the conference website soon.

Benefits for Attendees

- Earn PDUs – Earn professional development units (PDUs) from PMI to help maintain your PMP® or other PMI certification; presenters earn even more.
- Learn – Gain valuable new skills from experienced industry professionals and experts; every presentation includes learning objectives and outcomes.
- Grow – Be challenged to think outside the box, learn about new topics and trends, discuss issues with peers, take your skills to the next level.
- Network – Meet authors, recruiters, teachers and others who can help advance your career.
- Find Inspiration – Keynote speakers are chosen for their expertise, experience, passion and ability to inspire; learn, get excited, have fun!

Benefits for Employers

- Value – For a small investment, employees can acquire a wealth of information and knowledge that can be applied on the job immediately.
- Employee Development – Arm your project managers with the latest methods and ideas for managing projects of various sizes and complexity.
- Skill Enhancement – Employees can share lessons learned & learn new skills; multiple employees can split up, attend different sessions and maximize organizational learning.
- Competitive Advantage – Ensure that your project managers and teams can deliver new products and services to customers and stakeholders as well as or better than your competitors – with better project management!
- Community Involvement – Attendance can provide your employees and the company with a chance to engage with the university and local PMI chapter.
- Enhanced reputation – Be perceived as an innovative and forward-thinking organization by learning and implementing the latest PM best practices.

Registration for the event is now open, with discounted group prices available. If you are a project manager or project management professional living in Texas or nearby states, plan to attend this world class symposium. If you employ project and program management leaders, send them to this world-class event. Information about this year's outstanding keynote speakers is provided on the conference website; track speakers will be announced soon; for more information or to register, click here.

As it is each year, the 2025 symposium will be held in world-class facilities at the Naveen Jindal School of Management on The UT Dallas campus in Richardson, Texas, USA. The event will include keynote speakers, professional presentations, interactive sessions, lunch and coffee breaks, and a networking reception. For additional information or with questions contact pmsymposium@utdallas.edu or visit the UTD symposium website here.

Since 1997 the Project Management Program at The UT Dallas provides application-oriented education for professionals with significant project, program or general management responsibilities. Established in the Executive Education Center in UT Dallas' Naveen Jindal School of Management, students can earn a Graduate Certificate in Project Management, a Master of Science degree with an emphasis in project management, or a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree with project management emphasis. For more information, visit project.utdallas.edu.

Selected papers from the symposium will be published in the PM World Journal (ISSN: 2330-4480), a practitioner-oriented digital publication featuring dozens of articles, papers and stories about projects and project management around the world. The journal is published by PM World, which also maintains the PM World Library (PMWL), a global resource for continuous learning in program and project management. To read the latest edition, go to www.pmworldjournal.com. To learn more, visit www.pmworldlibrary.net.

