

Global Summit 2025

12-15 November 2025
Phoenix, Arizona, USA

Register Now

MORE, Together

PMI Global Summit: MORE Together, Advancing the Project Management Profession

The Project Management Institute (PMI) will host its flagship event, PMI Global Summit 2025, in Phoenix, Arizona, from November 12–15. With global demand for project professionals projected to grow by 30 million by 2035, the event provides a vital platform for the community to connect, build new skills, and prepare for the future of work.

MORE Together: Building Connections, Skills, and Impact

This year's theme, MORE, Together, reflects PMI's focus on helping project professionals:

- Expand networks through meaningful connections and collaboration
- Seize opportunities with forward-thinking strategies and actionable skills
- Amplify impact on projects, organizations, and communities worldwide

AI and the Future of Project Work

Attendees will explore sessions, hands-on demos, and the latest tools shaping the profession, including the launch of the mobile experience for PMI's AI-powered tool, Infinity, designed to help project professionals work smarter and faster.

Inspiring Voices on the Global Stage:

- Jose Andres – Chef, renowned restaurateur and humanitarian, founder of World Central Kitchen
- Kim Scott – Bestselling author of Radical Candor, CEO Coach, and co-founder of Radical Candor, LLC
- Damian Kulash – Lead singer and video director of OK Go

Tailored Learning for Every Career Stage

With four content tracks tailored to every career stage, from young professionals to senior executives, attendees can engage in educational sessions, hands-on workshops, curated networking, and immersive activities.

For full program details and to register, visit <https://pmiglobalsummit.gcs-web.com>