

Project Management Achievement Awards 2025 Winners Announced!

The Australian Institute of Project Management (AIPM™) is proud to officially announce the winners of the 2025 Project Management Achievement Awards (PMAA™), following a night of celebration at the PMAA™ Gala held during the AIPM International Conference.

The PMAAs honour outstanding achievement and leadership in project management, with entries received from across Australia and around the world. This year's winners exemplify the highest standards of excellence, innovation, and impact in project delivery.

We are pleased to share the winners in each category and congratulate all of this year's winners and finalists. Your achievements are a reflection of the global strength and evolving impact of project management as a profession.

Government Projects

Winner: First Building – Bradfield City Centre

Organisation: NSW Public Works and Bradfield Development Authority

This project delivered significant public value through strategic execution, stakeholder collaboration, and measurable community outcomes.

Community Projects

Winner: The Smith Family's Environmental Sustainability Strategy

Organisation: PMLogic and The Smith Family

Recognised for delivering lasting social impact, this project demonstrated deep community engagement and purposeful leadership.

Technology & Digital Innovation

Winner: National Joint Common Operating Picture (NJCOP)

Organisation: National Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) and Department of Home Affairs

A showcase of digital excellence, this project applied cutting-edge solutions to solve complex challenges and deliver exceptional outcomes.

Research Projects

Winner: Quantum Technologies Program Management: From the Edge of the World, to the Forefront of Innovation

Organisation: Dr. Greg Skulmoski, Bond University

This award-winning research advanced the discipline of project management through rigorous methodology, insight, and practical relevance.

Women in Project Management

Winner: The ACT Government Infrastructure Pipeline

Organisation: Gillian Geraghty, Director General, Infrastructure Canberra - ACT Government

Celebrated for her leadership, vision, and contribution to the profession, Gillian continues to be a powerful force in shaping the future of project management.

Australian Institute of Project Management

Level 1, 18 National Circuit

Barton, ACT 2600

02 8288 8700

Please visit us at www.aipm.com.au